When they will render some of their choicest gems of Continental music. The Old Folks are worthy of patronage.

"Divorce."

Last night, with its mix and match, was just such a con as to form many pleasure seekers to stay within doors. This alone can account for the vacant seats at the National. The room was a good one, as was evident from the number of men and women who witnessed it.

"Divorce" must have been literally paid for the visit to the theatre. Much has been said and almost as much has been written concerning the question in the fact that upwards of two thousand dollars it was presented in the box office.

"Divorce" viewed from any standpoint can not be regarded as a social or political question, but as a matter of private property.
